Dear Prayer Partner.

We thank God for everything He has done for us. As you know, we are waiting for our visa to be approved; so we can travel to the United States of America to raise our support.

We believe the divine power from God that our request will be guaranteed. Our hearts are full with Joy to serve God; it is our desire to be in full-time missions. We have a desire to fulfill the commission of Christ.

We have a command from our Lord Jesus Christ. Matthew 28:18 says, “ And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.” When Jesus gave His disciples the task of preaching the gospel to the whole world, they had absolutely no ability to carry it out - that’s why He told them to wait until the Holy Spirit came. In the same way, if we hope to accomplish what God desires in our life, we need to live with full dependence on the third person of the Godhead. The power of the Spirit is God’s divine energy and authority released in believers’ lives for the purpose of righteous living and fruitful service.

When we serve God we experience the following benefits:

- We’ll trust God instead of trying to manipulate our circumstances
- We may experience distress, but won’t become desperate
- We may get tired, but we won’t burn out

When we do God’s work by His strength, in His way, and with His wisdom, we’ll be blessed no matter what goes on around us.

I am Joyful for knowing that the debt is paid, my soul is free, and by His mighty power. The blood that washed my sins away still cleanseth every hour. I am redeemed! O Praise the Lord redeemed for evermore. We praise the Lord for another year of mercies, of faithfulness and grace, another year of gladness in the shining of thy face.

Thank you for your prayers.

All for His Glory
