Thanks, be unto the Lord, for each of you!

These are exciting times. Thanks to your prayers political upheaval has calmed down. We were not hurt in any of it. The horrible killings and crime continue in our town for which we cherish your continued prayers.

We are getting ready for youth camp. Thank the Lord for those who sent offerings to make youth camp possible. We have leaders and teens very excited. Saturday we had an all day leadership training time in preparation.

Yesterday, I had the opportunity to meet a blind, elderly lady and invite her to church. She came Sunday night and is interested in making the mission her church home. She has no family and is cared for by a young lady who also came to the service and is interested.

David has recently been coming regularly and getting more involved. He has started volunteering to clean the church on Saturday afternoons. This is a great blessing to see evolve. His interest in the Bible has also grown and he has joined our group of "Read through the Bible in one year."

Last Sunday we had Jacobo Nazar from La Esperanza, Intibucá came to preach for the mission. Jacobo was a child when we first started working in Intibucá and his mother's house was where we had one of our first services. Forty years later he is a pastor and is reaching seven villages with the Gospel and training workers. Our mission, Iglesia Bautista Gracia, has taken him on as our missionary. This is a very exciting step forward for our mission.

For two weeks we will be helping Rev. J.D. Young with his survey trip as he looks into coming to Honduras as a missionary. Please be in prayer for J.D. as we take him around the country and into homes to get to know the people here.
