February 2024

Thanks, be unto the Lord, for each of you!

Another great month because of your faithful prayers.

We had a wonderful service for the 14th of February. We called it Friendship Day with special invitation to friends and neighbors. Our church was full and there were many visitors.

As a result, we were invited to a home way up in the mountain. Two ladies were saved, and a man witnessed to who was challenged to receive Christ.

We also visited a lady returning to her home in Spain. We prayed with her and gave her a Bible. She was shedding tears as she clutched the Bible to her chest with love.

Youth camp is coming up. Please be in prayer for our youth as they get ready to go. One of our youths, was trained a couple years ago as a leader and will be leading in activities this year. It is wonderful to see our fruit produce. Anai was saved, baptized, and grew up in our mission work.

Jenny is from the last church we organized in Colonia Matta, Iglesia Bautista Victoria. As a child she was with us in the beginning when we started as a mission with only a few people. She was saved, baptized and now is an adult with three children. She recently moved into the area of our mission work in Barrio San Francisco. Jenny rededicated her life and has become very faithful to church.

Her son is deaf, and we have been helping with the medical bills. Alberto has attached himself to me as I have reached out to him. He is five years old and kneels to pray at his bedside by himself.

Jenny's husband, Marvin, ask to talk to me last Sunday and wants to serve the Lord with us. That will be a tremendous blessing. He needs to put a few things right in his life and he is working on that.

Youth meeting today was at a park where they played Bible games, and I gave a Bible lesson. They are doing activities to help pay for youth camp and all of them plan on going to camp.

Yours in Christ,

Harold and Lena Priday
