Missionaries to the Navajo Nation

Dear Pastor and Church,

September – October 2021

MISSIONS CONFERENCES – MIGHTY MEETINGS!

It seems like there was one Missions Conference after another out here on the Rez! Here is a summary of what went on. At Ganado, Bro. John Peebles had to cancel because of illness, so I preached the Conference along with our son, Joel. Ganado Baptist gave around $42,000 to missions last year; the commitment for this year is over $60,000! Strong Hold Baptist in Pinon committed over $20,000, while Newcomb Baptist and Old Paths Baptist committed $4,800 and $9,200 respectively. Crownpoint Baptist committed $9,080. What a blessing to see the churches all get involved to reach the world!!

MRS. CURLEY – MISS YOU BUT SEE YOU SOON!

Helen Curley, the wife of the late Pastor Harry Curley, went home to be with the Lord on October 21, 2021 at age 86. She was a pastor's wife, soulwinner, and prayer warrior. She had an infectious laugh that everyone recognized. In her last days, she requested prayer for a man that her husband had taught construction trades many years ago in high school. He loved the Curley family but had never been saved. At Mrs. Helen's funeral, the man received Jesus Christ as his Saviour!! The family and church were thrilled with this news! I am sure she and Bro. Harry had a time of rejoicing in Heaven over it!!

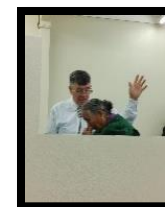

MENTORING MYKEL – MINISTERING TO HIS FAMILY

Mykel is a young man in our church that I recently began taking with me on soulwinning visits. I got him a soulwinner's New Testament and encouraged him to memorize the Plan of Salvation. Just today, I received an "excited" text from him telling me he had the privilege of winning his grandmother to the Lord! What a blessing! He now wants to see her husband, his grandfather, saved as well. The grandfather has serious health issues, so pray for his salvation! Putting time into people in training is well worth the effort! God is good!

MEMBERS ADDED – MORE BAPTISMS

It was a joy to be able to baptize several people over the past few weeks! One was a lady in her 80's! One was a young lady my wife won to the Lord after a church service. We also saw a lady saved during a service who is a caregiver for one of our elderly members. Pray for these new believers and their walk with the Lord!

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES – MORE THAN EVER!

Pray for us this holiday season as we seek to use this time to reach more folks. Thank you for partnering with us in the great endeavor to reach the Navajo Nation for our Lord! Love you folks!
